Genre: Mystery and Suspense		Various	30 min.	Written by James W. Nichol . Kyra Harper is Peggy Delaney , George Buza is Carlos , Caterina Scorsone is Amber , and John Stocker is Bernie . Hosted by Bob Boving . Peggy is a hard-drinking, hard-writing, 40-ish Toronto newspaper columnist who can more than hold her own with any of the guys in the newsroom. Peggy's column for The Toronto Tribune provides the focus for each week's plot. Aiding Peggy is old Cabbagetown childhood buddy Bernie Sniderman , a gentle spirit who now runs Cinderella Cleaners, and Nick Bauer , a former Washington correspondent with old-fashioned journalism values. Peggy's estranged 15-year-old daughter, Amber , comes from Vancouver to to stay with her mom for a school term in Toronto. Amber disapproves of her mother's lifestyle and isn't shy about it. Going after the story behind the story, Peggy takes everything personally. Like her columns, the stories don't end in simple clichés. They leave you with something substantial to chew on. Relating to Peggy's own life, what emerges is a portrait of an engagingly flawed, contemporary career woman .
